Touchstone Merchandise Group, LLC,	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Plaintiff,) Civil Action No. 1108CV714
vs.	J. BARRETT
Novelty, Inc.,	OMPLAINT Demand for Jury Trial
Defendant.

For its Complaint against Defendant, Plaintiff Touchstone states as follows:

- Plaintiff Touchstone Merchandise Group, LLC ("Touchstone") is a limited liability company of the State of Ohio maintaining a principal place of business at 7405 Industrial Row Drive, Mason, Ohio 45040, within this judicial district.
- 2. On information and belief, Defendant Novelty, Inc. ("Novelty") is a corporation with a principal place of business at 351 West Muskegon Drive, Greenfield, Indiana.
- 3. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C §§ 1331 and 1332.
- 4. Venue is proper in this District.
- In 2006, Touchstone purchased from Novelty, and Novelty subsequently delivered to Touchstone's customer, a quantity of disposable pocket lighters ("Lighters").
- 6. On information and belief, Novelty regularly deals in goods of this type.
- Novelty expressly represented to Touchstone that Novelty had the legal right to produce, import and sell the Lighters.

- 8. On information and belief, such representation was false.
- 9. Touchstone relied upon Novelty's representations.
- 10. Further, in providing such Lighters to Touchstone, Novelty impliedly warranted to Touchstone that the Lighters would be delivered free of the rightful claim of any third person by way of infringement or the like.
- On or about February 12, 2008, Guang Lin ("Lin") brought suit in the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina (the "South Carolina Action"), alleging that Touchstone infringed United States Patent No. 6,267,582 ("the '582 patent.") by using, selling, offering for sale, and/or importing the Lighters. Lin sought an award of damages adequate to compensate for such alleged infringement, in no event less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs, and an injunction preliminarily and permanently enjoining Touchstone from further infringement.
- 12. Touchstone requested that Novelty indemnify and defend it in the South Carolina Action, but Novelty refused.
- 13. In the South Carolina Action, Touchstone denied that it had infringed the '582 Patent, and that Lin was entitled to any relief whatsoever.
- 14. On July 7, 2008, Touchstone filed a third party complaint against Novelty in the South Carolina Action alleging, inter alia,:

[Touchstone] is informed and believes that, in the event it is determined, decided, adjudged, or allowed that the Touchstone should recover the damages alleged in its Complaint under the cause of action asserted therein, [Touchstone] would be and is entitled to judgment over and against Third-Party Defendant Novelty, Inc. for any and all sums thereby awarded to [Lin] against [Touchstone] and for full indemnification by Third-Party Defendant Novelty, Inc. for any loss or damage, including attorneys fees, that [Touchstone] may sustain or incur herein, as such would have been the direct and proximate result of the breach by Third-Party Defendant Novelty, Inc. of its implied warranty to [Touchstone].

If the infringement and damage occurred as alleged in the Complaint, which is denied and which is alleged here solely for the purposes of this Third-Party Complaint, such infringement and damage was the direct and proximate result of the acts and/or omissions of Third-Party Defendant Novelty, Inc.

[Touchstone] is informed and believes that, in the event it is determined, decided, adjudged, or allowed that [Lin] should recover the damages alleged in its Complaint under the cause of action asserted therein, [Touchstone] would be and is entitled to judgment over and against Third-Party Defendant Novelty, Inc. for any and all sums thereby awarded to [Lin] against [Touchstone] and for full indemnification by Third-Party Defendant Novelty, Inc. for any loss or damage, including attorneys fees, that [Touchstone] may sustain or incur herein, as [Touchstone] had no active culpability in this matter and a sufficient relationship exists between [Touchstone] and Third-Party Defendant Novelty, Inc. to give rise to a duty to indemnify.

WHEREFORE, [Touchstone] prays:

In the event that there is a verdict for [Lin] against [Touchstone], [Touchstone] prays for indemnity, including all amounts it is required to pay [Lin] along with attorneys' fees, costs, and such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper from Third-Party Defendant Novelty, Inc.; and Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

- At the time of the filing of the present action, Novelty had not answered, filed a summary 15. judgment motion, or filed a responsive pleading in the South Carolina Action.
- 16. Beginning in September, 2008, Touchstone engaged in settlement discussions with Lin, and requested Novelty's participation in the settlement. On September 18, 2008, Touchstone placed Novelty on notice that if it did not participate in the settlement, Touchstone would unilaterally make its "own deal with [Lin] and seek full indemnity for that amount and all associated attorneys' fees and costs from Novelty." Novelty refused to participate in the settlement.
- 17. On September 24, 2008, Touchstone again solicited Novelty's participation in the settlement with Lin, and reiterated that "[i]f Novelty refuses to participate, we will strike whatever deal makes sense, which will not involve Novelty in any way. . . . If Touchstone has to pay the - entire settlement itself, it will look to Novelty for reimbursement of the settlement amount, as well as any legal expenses incurred in connection with Lin's infringement charges." Novelty did not respond to Touchstone.

- 18. On October 3, 2008, Touchstone notified Novelty that it had reached settlement with Lin, and outlined terms of the settlement. Touchstone once again requested Novelty's participation in the settlement. Novelty continued to refuse to participate.
- 19. On October 8, 2008, Touchstone and Lin resolved their dispute in the South Carolina Action.
- 20. Novelty has not agreed to reimburse Touchstone for any amount incurred in defending or settling the South Carolina Action.
- 21. Novelty's actions have been willful and in bad faith, and/or violate the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing.
- 22. Touchstone has been damaged by the forgoing acts and/or omissions of Novelty in an amount exceeding $75,000.

COUNT I – BREACH OF EXPRESS WARRANTY

- 23. Touchstone repeats paragraphs 1-22 above as if fully rewritten herein.
- 24. Novelty has breached its express warranty that it had the legal right to furnish the Lighters to Touchstone.

COUNT II - BREACH OF IMPLIED WARRANTY

- 25. Touchstone repeats paragraphs 1-22 above as if fully rewritten herein.
- 26. Novelty has breached the implied warranty of non-infringement that the Lighters would be delivered free of the rightful claim of any third person by way of infringement or the like.

COUNT III - VIOLATION OF LANHAM ACT

27. Touchstone repeats paragraphs 1-22 above as if fully rewritten herein.

28. Novelty's false representations violate Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

COUNT IV - VIOLATION OF OHIO DECEPTIVE TRADE PRACTICE ACT

- 29. Touchstone repeats paragraphs 1-22 above as if fully rewritten herein.
- 30. The forgoing acts by Novelty violate the Ohio Deceptive Trade Practice Act. O.R.C. chapter4165.

COUNT V- NEGLIGENT MISRPRESENTATION

- 31. Touchstone repeats paragraphs 1-22 above as if fully rewritten herein.
- 32. Novelty failed to exercise reasonable care or competence in communicating to Touchstone Novelty's right to legally furnish the Lighters to Touchstone

COUNT VI - RIGHT OF CONTRIBUTION

- 33. Touchstone repeats paragraphs 1-22 above as if fully rewritten herein.
- 34. Touchstone is entitled to contribution from Novelty of any settlement amount paid by Touchstone pursuant to O.R.C. §§ 2307.25 et seq

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that it recover:

- A. All damages incurred by plaintiff, including but not limited to, all sums expended in connection with the South Carolina Action, including but not limited to all settlement amounts, attorneys fess, costs and expenses, with interest;
- B. Three times the amount of Plaintiff's damages;
- C. Plaintiff's attorneys fees, costs and expenses expended in connection with this action; and
- D. Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury.
